

MORE THAN JUST A UNIVERSITY RESIDENCE

- Cleraun has a long association with UCD. Since it opened in 1982 the Centre has organised many cultural and educational activities for university students.
- Guest speakers are regularly invited to discuss and debate topical issues.
- Throughout the academic year social projects are organised by residents. Since 1992 Cleraun has been bringing university students and young professionals to some of the poorest parts of the developing world as well as encouraging local social project initiatives.
- Cleraun hosts multi-disciplinary seminars and conferences on topics such as the media, philosophy and science.
- Cycling tours and hiking weekends are organised throughout the academic year for resident and non-resident students.

ATMOSPHERE

- Cleraun offers a 'home away from home' for students.
- At Cleraun a spirit of service to others and a family atmosphere is fostered. With this in mind all residents help in maintaining the centre.

Cleraun organises regular seminars

- Students of all creeds and nationalities are welcome.
- Spiritual and doctrinal activities at Cleraun are entrusted to Opus Dei, a personal prelature of the Catholic Church. Opus Dei helps ordinary people to find God in their work and in their family.
- Cleraun has a resident chaplain who looks after spiritual activities such as weekly talks and an annual retreat.
